Shin Hakodate Hokuto Transport Guide ACCESS TO NINOHE Car Rentals Train JR Ninohe Station Tovota Rent-A-Lease Iwate ☎0195-23-2041 Ninohe Station Shinkansen Exit Shop IGR Ninohe Station 20195-23-0100 ☎0195-23-8670 Nippon Rent-A-Car Tohoku Ninohe Station West Exit Shop Shin Aomor ☎0195-27-2288 ☎0195-23-0919 Rabbit Rent-A-Car ☎0195-38-3335 Hachinohe) Times Car Rental Ninohe Shop Taxi Ninohe 20195-23-8118 Tamakawa Kanko Taxi Car Network (Head Office) (100 yen Rent-A-Car Ninohe Shop) Ashiro JC Joboji IC ☎0195-23-2121 ☎0195-23-0474 Tamakawa Kanko Tax (Kintaichi) 20195-27-2121 Bus Fukuoka Taxi ☎0195-23-3161 JR Bus Tohoku Ninohe Office Cassioneia Taxi ☎0195-23-5229 ☎0195-22-5505 Iwate Kenpoku Bus Ichinohe Office ☎0195-33-2231 20195-38-2233 * Distances and times are estimates 40 mins Shin Aomori Shin Hakodate Hokuto Sendai 1 hrs 10 mins Shinkansen Tokyo 2 hrs 40 mins guchi JCT - Sendai Miyagi IC - Morioka IC - Ashiro JCT -

Ninohe City Tourism Association Tel: 0195-23-3641 Fax: 0195-23-2343 68 Moriai, Ishikiridokoro, Ninohe-shi, Iwate-kenNinohe Wide Regional Tourism and Products Center 3F

Airplane

The top of Iwate "The Home of Japan, Nihohe" website http://ninohe-kanko.com/

Iwateya Main Store

A shop of the Nanbu Senbei (wheat crackers), the classic souvenir of Iwate. In addition to the traditional toppings of sesame and peanuts, there are a variety of toppings such as squid and apples. Enjoy the Nanbu wheat crackers that continues to evolve with its rich variety.

Yamacho Meat

In one of the biggest producer of Tankaku-waqyu

Address: 55-11 Arase, Ishikiridokoro, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-6727

(Japanese Shorthorn), Ninohe, the shop raises and pagariese shorthoff, Rinlone, the shop hases and processes mainly Tankaku-wagyu(Beef), and customers can purchase the processed meat here. For factory tours, call before visiting. The directly managed restaurant Tankakutei is located in the city.

Opening Hours: 8:00am-5:00pm Holidays: Sundays, Obon Festival (mid-August), Year-end and New Year's holidays Parking: Availabla

Basenkyo View Point

From the confluence point of the Mabechi River and the

Appi River to the downstream, it is a land of marvelous scenery of rocks and cliff with Meotoiwa Rock on the left and Oohogake Cliff on the right. The beautiful nature o

Cassiopeia Messe Nanyato

A symbolic place for exchange and cooperation of Southern Aomori. Northeastern Akita, and Northern wate where Nihohe station is surrounded by. Souveni of nineteen cities in three prefectures from Northern Tohoku region are sold at Bussan product store. An observation tower with 360-degree panoramic view, a local foods restaurant, tour information desk, and community FM studio are located.

Address: 68 Moriai, Ishikiridokoro, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-7210 Opening Hours: 9:00am-10:00pm Holidays: None

each season, especially the autumn leaves during fall

Tel:0195-23-3641 Ninohe City Tourism Association Parking: Available (Ogamiiwa Rock Observatory Deck)

Address: 41-1 Maeta, Ishikiridokoro, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-2209 Opening Hours: 9:00am-6:00pm Holidays: Second and Fourth Sundays Parking: 5 slots available

Rest Park Mabechigawa

A restaurant with an elegant Showa retro atmosphere at the Mabechi River. Enjoy the original taste since its establishment by spending a slow time relaxing looking at the flowing Mabechi River.

Address: 3-1 Obuchi, Ishikiridokoro, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-3339 Opening Hours: 10:30am-8:00pm (L.O.) Holidays: No regular holidays Parking: Available

North Chocolate Factory & Shop "2door"

North Chocolate Factory & Shop 2door. The name 2door came from the meaning of the Chinese characters of Ninohe. You can purchase the Choco Nanbu, a combination of Nanbu Senbei (wheat crackers) and Chocolate, and also tour through the factory. The taste of the Choco Nanbu was supervised by Hideaki Sarudate, a global chocolatier born in Ninohe.

Address: 65-3 Arase, Ishikiridokoro, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-22-2222 Opening Hours: 10:00am-6:00pm Holidays: No regular holidays (See the official website calendar)

Kieko Watanabe Poem Monument

Naoki Prize Novelist, Kieko Watanabe, wrote the prized book "Mabechi River" at Ninohe City, the homeland of her mother. A Poem Monument was created in commemoration of receiving the Naoki Prize at the vicinity of Myoujingafuchi Pool of Basenkyo.

Civic Center

A cultural facility with meeting roo as the regional information center, Aikitsu Tanakadate Memorial Science Museum, and the one and only permanent exhibition in Japan of a graphic designer, . Shiqeo Fukuda.

Address: 6-2 Niwatari, Ishikiridokoro, Tel: 0195-25-5411/Parking: Available

Opening Hours:
9:00am-9:00pm(Mondays open till 5:00pm)
Aikitsu Tanakadate Memorial Science Museum/Shigeo Fukuda Design Museum 9:00am-5:00pm (Last entry 4:30pm)

Holidays: Civic Center Fourth Mondays (The following day if a public holiday falls on this day) Science Museum/Design Museum Mondays (The following day if a public holiday falls on this day)

For each Science Museum/Design Museum For each Science wiseum/Design Museum General and High School Students ¥200 Elementary and Junior High School Students ¥100 Tickets for Both General and High School Students ¥360 Elementary and Junior High School Students ¥180

Ramen Restaurant Onoman

he menu has ramen noodles that use the Ninohe's Top 3 meat: Tankaku-wagyu(Beef), Sasukebuta(Pork), and Saisaidori(Chicken). Iwate Tankaku-wagyu(Beef) ramen, Onoman specialty ramen, and rich chicken & small dried Address: 14-3 Kobunoki, Ishikiridokoro, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-26-8373 Opening Hours: 11:00am-4:00pm (Mondays open till 2:00pm) "Closes once the soup and ingredients sell out. Holidays: Tuesdays Parking: Available

チキンカレー

Abehanko Shoten/Abehan Shop

"Abedori" is a brand chicken of Ninohe which is known for its production of chickens in Japan. A direct sales store of fresh chicken and processed food from the factory as well as daily dish. The pouched curry series is

Ono Yohojo (Apiary)

Since its establishment in 1917 (6th year of Taisho), the

A shop of the popular western sweets of Ninohe, "Cheese Piccolo." The sponge cake gently wraps around the semi-sweet cheese cream, and it is loved by the locals from the young generation to elders apiary has been making honey and royal jelly from various trees and wildflowers such as Japanese horse-chestnut, Acacia, buckwheat, and chestnuts raised in the rich nature of Hachimantai foothills,

Address: 13 Nakamachi, Fukuoka, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-2119

Sanchoku Fureai Ninohe

(Sanchoku: direct delivery from farms) The "Kitchen of Locals" where you can encounter the seasonal fresh vegetables, fruits, and meat as well as pickles, household dish, and traditional snacks of Ninohe. Take a rest at Matsubokkuri, a popular gelato

Address: 22-28 Niwatari, Ishikiridokoro, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-0288 Opening Hours: 10:00am-6:00pm Holidays: New Year's holidays (January 1 through January 3) Parking: Available

A long-established store known for the Ninohe specialty A long-established store known for the Ninone specialty "Nikko Pan." The son of the owner and a global chocolatier, Hideaki Sarudate, creates chocolate masterpieces of the homeland using Ninohe grown Himegurumi walnuts and lwateyamanashi pears. Baked sweets of his store "Ma Priere" (Tokyo, Mitaka) and other sweets exclusive to this store can be enjoyed.

Address: 28 Nakamachi, Fukuoka, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-2430
Opening Hours: 9:00am-7:00pm
Holidays: No regular holidays
Parking: Available

Tan-ichi pan Bakery

A popular bakery loved by the locals. Choose from the 16 ingredients and have them spread on the home-made bread. Recommended for lunch or snack.

Address: 1-7 Shimokawamata, Fukuoka, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-2419 Opening Hours: 10:00am-6:30pm Holidays: Sundays Parking: Available

Kobunoki Shrine

A shrine for people to be blessed with children and have an easy delivery. At the Konsei Festival also known as the bizarre festival of Ninohe held every September, males carry a mikoshi (portable shrine) with the sacred object in high spirits and walk around the city.

Kunohe Castle Ruins

It was selected for the "Continued Series of Japan's Top 100 Castles" on April 6, 2017 (Day of Castles) and a guide house became an information center of the

Kunohe Castle Stamp for the stamp collections event

Kunohe Castle was a castle where Masazane Kunohe lived as well as the site of the final battle in Toyotomi lived as well as the site of the inflat battle in Toyotomi Hideyoshi's campaign to reunify Japan. The 5,000 besieged armies of Masazane were surrounded by Toyotomi's large army of 65,000, and the castle fell upon by accepting peace negotiations trap. It is still called Kunohe Castle from the respect towards Kunohe

Address: Shironouchi, Fukuoka, Ninohe-shi Tel:0195-23-3641

Tel:0195-23-3641
Ninohe City Tourism Association
Parking: Available
"Guide House
From mid-April to end of Nov
Open from 10:00am to 3:00pm

Address: Kobunoki, Ishikiridokoro, Ninohe-shi Tel:0195-23-3641 Ninohe City Tourism Association

Iwaya Kannon Statue Temple

In the temple dug in the rock face of Shiratori River, 2 Kannon statues are enshrined which is said to have pulled up when the river overflowed in the past. The gokaicho (public exhibition) when the red doors of the temple open occurs once in 100 years.

Address: Shironosoto, Fukuoka, Ninohe-shi Tel:0195-23-3641 Ninohe City Tourism Association Parking: Available (2 slots)

Ninohe City Archaeological Properties Research Center

Location of the Kunohe Castle Stamp for the "Continued Series of Japan's Top 100 Castles". In Ninohe City, there are about 600 ruins from the Jomon period to the Edo period; the excavated articles including earthenware, clay figurine, bear-shaped clay products, and Warabite Sword etc. and relevant material of Kunohe Castle Ruin: are exhibited in the exhibition room.

Address: 3F, 11-1 Hachimanshita, Fukuoka, Ninohe-shi

Address: 3F, 11-1 Hachimanshita, Fukuoka, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-8020
Opening Hours: 9:00am-5:00pm (Last admission 4:30pm) Holidays:
Mondays (The following day if a public holiday falls on this day)/ The day following public holidays(excluding Saturdays and Sundays)/Year-end and New Year's holidays (December 29 through January 3)
Admission:

General ¥50, Elementary and /Junior High School students ¥20/Elementary School ents and Younger - Free house during the summer to escape the heat in his late

Address: Itsukamachi, Fukuoka, Ninohe-shi Tel:0195-23-3483 Ninohe City Board of Education, Lifelong Learning Division

Aikitsu Tanakadate, the world-famous physicist born in Ninohe City left great achievements in the research of geodetic survey, earthquakes, terrestrial magnetism, and aeronautics as well as the promotion of the use of the metric system and roman letters. He would visit this beauted which the host with the host with the host which the survey during the current to escar the host in his letter.

A high-class shrine of Ninohe which holds its shrine in the Kunohe Castle Matsunomaru Ruins and with deep faith by the feudal lords of Morioka Domain for ions. There is the Masazane Kunohe Shrine

Tonko Inari Shrine

Address:Matsunomaru, Fukuoka, Ninohe-shi Tel: 0195-23-2042 Parking: Free parking available

Rokkaku Mikoshi Portable Shrine

The "Rokkaku Mikoshi", a portable shrine of the Tonko Ine ROKKAKU MIKOSNI, a portable Shrine of the Lorko Inari Shrine, is said to have been donated by the feudal lord of Morioka Domain, Nanbu Toshikatsu, in 1763 (13th year of Horeki). The Rokkaku Mikoshi strolls around at the "Ninohe Matsuri Festival", a large festival of 3 shrines: Tonko Inari Shrine, Atago Shrine, and Akiba Tangible cultural property designated by Ninohe City(architecture). In 1858 (5th year of Ansei), the Kaihosha was established on the purpose of opening schools for Japanese and Chinese literature by Kensaku Ogura in Hagi, and lectures were held at this Kiinsha. Alikitsu Tanakadate also learned at this place during his open calls childhood.

